Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The graduates of the Class of 1961 have lived lives of service in their diverse capacities and circumstances—serving their family, church, community, state, and country, and these contributions constitute true success in life regardless of what their dreams and life goals were in 1961; and,

Whereas, The Madison High School Class of 1961 will be celebrating their 50 year class reunion; and,

Whereas, Classmates have lived through thirteen presidents of the United States, and the annexation of both Alaska and Hawaii; and,

Whereas, Classmates have learned from the example of their parents and are members of the Greatest Generation; and,

Whereas, Members of the Class of 1961 have inspired and encouraged countless South Dakotans; and,

Whereas, The Madison High School Class of 1961 will be celebrating their 50 year class reunion on September 17, 2011:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 17, 2011, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirty-first Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard
